DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on October 31, 2007 has been entered.
2. Examiner acknowledges amended claims 1, 21 and 22.
3. The rejection of claims of 1 and 20-22 under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Hosokawa et al., U.S. Patent Number 6,515,182 is overcome by applicant's amendment.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

5. Claims 1 and 20-23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Hosokawa et al., U.S. Patent Number 6,534,199.

The applied reference has a common inventor with the instant application. Based upon the earlier effective U.S. filing date of the reference, it constitutes prior art under 35 U.S.C.

102(e). This rejection under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) might be overcome either by a showing under 37 CFR 1.132 that any invention disclosed but not claimed in the reference was derived from the inventor of this application and is thus not the invention "by another," or by an appropriate showing under 37 CFR 1.131.

Hosokawa discloses an organic electroluminescent device comprising a layer of an organic light emitting medium disposed between a pair of electrodes wherein the layer or organic light emitting medium comprises (A) at least one arylamine compound such as

And (B) a compound having condensed rings such as

The arylamine of the Hosokawa reference reads on the present claims when X^3 is pyrene; p is 2 and Ar^5 and Ar^6 are substituted or unsubstituted phenylene groups. The compound (B) of the reference reads on the present claims when a is 2; R^1 is an aryl group such as phenyl and at the ortho and meta positions of the phenyl ring and A⁹ is a substituted anthryl group such as

. See entire document.

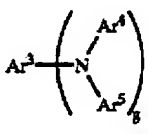

Double Patenting

6. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the “right to exclude” granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

7. Claims 1 and 20-22 are rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1 and 4 of U.S. Patent No. 6,534,199. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because both the present application and the patented reference recite an organic electroluminescence device comprising a layer of an organic light emitting medium disposed between a pair of electrodes wherein the layer of an organic light emitting medium comprises (A) an arylamine with the structure  and a compound having condensed rings such as

. The patented reference does not specifically disclose that Ar^3 is a substituted or unsubstituted condensed aromatic group that does not represent a fluorene group that is di-substituted at the 9-position. However, the patented reference does disclose that Ar³ can be represented by a substituted or unsubstituted aromatic group having 6 to 40 carbon atoms, which is generic and would include condensed aromatic ring group having 10 to 40 nuclear carbon atoms.

Response to Arguments

8. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1 and 20-22 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
